

Scrum Master

Supervisor for Team members

Listening to the Team members regarding their problems, and career and salary aspirations, having a responsibility for employment and project assignments, etc.

Actively Avoid

If the ScrumMaster is a manager to the Development Team members, it almost always bring the “invisible gun” problem to their relationship and makes it very hard to have truly honest relationships. Being the manager certainly influences the ability to observe the system properly.

Responsible Helping with Actively Avoid Scrum is Silent
