

Product Backlog

11

It is sufficient to group rank the Product Backlog Items, e.g. to Must-Haves, Should-Haves, Could-Haves.

Avoid

It is never sufficient to group rank, but such categorizations or tags can be very useful ways in understanding and maintaining the Product Backlog.

Product Backlog

12

The Product Backlog is flexible – items can be added/removed/edited at any time – but items in current sprint are locked.
